1959 RODEO EDITION

PROPOSED CIVIC CENTRE - DRAYTON VALLEY.

Each year, since 1956, the Pembina News Advertiser has put out a special Rodeo edition. We wish to thank all those who have extended greetings to the visitors to Drayton Valley's 4th. Annual Rodeo through the medium of this paper. This year the Rodeo has been sponsored by the Drayton Valley Lions Club, and they have worked very hard to make it a big success. Whatever money they might make on the affair will go into worthwhile community projects. Through the untiring efforts of the Drayton Valley Curling Club and the Lions Club members this year a new "first" has been added to the Rodeo attractions..... 10,000 square feet of satin-smooth dance floor in the Ring; and the Lions will utilize it for this special event with three dances, a pre-Rodeo dance on Thursday night, and one on each of the two Rodeo nights, Friday and Saturday, to the music of Gaby Haas and his wonderful band.

Many things have taken place, or are in the process of taking place in the year that is past since last Rodeo time... hundreds of new permanent citizens added to the Drayton Valley population and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of new buildings. To name but a few.... there is the new building to house the Royal Bank of Canada, the huge Hudson's Bay Company store, a nurses residence, a new church building and, shown herewith, the artists drawing of the Town Hall for the Town of Drayton Valley, which will be under construction shortly. It will have 6,000 square feet of floor space on the main floor, and a basement under much of the building, the new Town Hall will supply space for various Town departments. On the main floor will be the Council chambers, with the Library adjoining. The Water Department will have office space. There will be a General Administration office, with an adjoining room for the vault and bookkeeping machine. The Health Unit will have an office. The two-bay Fire Department hall, will have sleeping facilities for on-duty firemen when and if necessary. There has been a change in the position of the Fire Hall shown in the rear of the building since the sketch was first made up; it will now be located on the west side of the building, at the rear, instead of the east-rear side as now pictured. I'll just bet that the studios, where pictures are developed, are about to lose their minds. It would be fun to see the many attempts that were made at taking pictures put on display. When all of our pictures are returned and accounted for, I will report to you as to whether any of us have a film record of this very important occasion or if all we have will be memory pictures in our minds and a bunch of souled up film from our cameras!

Warm weather and seeing the Queen has made me decide to give you a cool and refreshing dessert, dainty but tasty and best of all requires little or no effort to prepare.

1 c. Pineapple juice; 1 Tablesp. lemon juice; 1
teas. grated lemon rind; 2/3 c. sugar; 1 pt. milk.
Combines sugar, pineapple juice, lemon juice & rind,

RODED GREETINGS

Once again we have the pleasure of putting out the "Rodeo Edition" and in welcoming visitors to Drayton Valley and to Drayton Valley's 4th Annual Rodeo. We are glad to welcome all to the "Valley of Oil" where a new industrial empire is being carved out of the former near-wilderness.

As most of those who were here at the time know, prior to the discovery of oil here in 1953 Drayton Valley was a very small hamlet. Mobil Oil of Canada, then known as Socony Oil Co., were the pioneers in the field and are still major operators here.

The site and date of the historic Discovery Well No.1 is the Glen homestead, five miles west and one mile south of Violet Grove, known on maps as LSD 4-16-18-45. The well was spudded in" on February 24th, 1937. The first oil released on May 2, 1937. The well was closed in" on May 19, 1937, although the figures were released on the well in June, it was October before final tests were run, and immediately after that the mad scramble for Pembina leases began. The development of the field has proceeded at a fast pace since until the time that this year a total of 1971 wells had been drilled within the limits of the field. Of these 2403 were producing oilwells, and the rest were injection wells for repressuring the field. The area have been only 18 abandoned wells. The field limits have been extended several times. The latest is the extension of the field north of Drayton Valley in the Rocky Rapids area. Leases are still being won in the field. On July 23, 1971, lease sold on Pembina field land brought in almost two million dollars to the provincial treasury.

The picture above was taken last year during an exhibition of the rodeo. The "back-ground" is the judges' stand, and the sign, "Drake's Rodeo Ground." Mr. William Drake, whose homestead is on the ground where he posted, is a member of the Rodeo Committee. He gave the property without charge, and after the death of Mr Drake and his son in a tragic highway accident on Highway 100, the property is going to the Rodeo Association. The association is on Drayton Valley a couple of years ago, Mrs Drake and the estate gave further permission to the Rodeo Committee to use the property for the purpose. The tract is a fine piece of land and is very well situated for the purposes of a rodeo ground.

The Drake family had the first post-office in the valley, which is now known as "Drayton Valley"; the old log cabin which housed the post-office and store may still be seen on the west side of the highway, just where the dike ends. Before the first World War the district here was known as "Powerhouse" as a group of English and Eastern financiers had plans to put a dam across the Saskatchewan River just south of Drayton. The dam was never built and the town was abandoned and the name of "Powerhouse" was dropped, and the Drakes' substituted the name of "Drayton" from their home town in England. The name of "Valley" was added, since at that time the post-office was located in the valley just west of the present townsite. When the Drakes moved their store and post-office to the present site of Drayton Valley town, the name remained the same. The town was founded previous to 1953 and the town has now grown to a 1959 population figure of 3528 persons.

THE HERALD NEWS ADVERTISER.

July 30, 1959

Each year during the Rodeo Edition we run a little commentary on the building-up of the Town of Drayton Valley. Each year, for the past four years of the Rodeo and the Rodeo edition we have pictured a new church under construction, or recently constructed. This year it is the Lutheran Church. One year it was the Church of God, one year the Catholic Church and last year it was the United Church. Not pictured in this edition is the big new high school under construction.

Drayton Valley's building boom continues to roll merrily along. Approximately one and one-half million dollars is the figure expected to be reached by new construction in Drayton Valley during 1959. At the present time the figure is about one million dollars worth of permits granted to date.

Upper left picture is the Jon-Len Building, housing Valley Valet Dry Cleaners and Devon Jewelry. The building was the former Drumstick Restaurant and was extensively renovated, with the fine all-glass front being installed by the new owners. Below is the new Lutheran Church under construction, by MacGaidler Construction Co. With past progress being made on the structure, it will house the growing Lutheran congregation when finished. Pastor is the Rev. John Karlsen. Curt's Studio is a new addition to the growth and business of the town. Most of the pictures in this edition were taken by Curt. Immediately below it may be seen a view of the construction of the huge Hudson's Bay store, which is expected to be ready for business some time this fall.

Finished about Rodeo time last year, the building at the upper right is Rex's Radio and T.V. shop. The new Royal Bank building may be seen immediately below Rex's. And the bottom right hand picture is a view of the Nurses Residence now under construction by MacGaidler. The Hudson's Bay building and the bank building are being constructed by Perent Western Ltd.

Billowing clouds of smoke are arising from the North Russian 28-6 oil spill of approximately 500 barrels of oil resulting from a broken flow line. The pipe line broke occurred in the Easyford district, near Red 11-01 Battery #4, during the fall of 1957. After the break occurred the Forest Range ordered that the fire be lighted under supervision, lest it might be ignited at a later date and get out of control. Curt Clauson recorded the picture of the spectacular blast photographically.

Picture No. 2 shows the immense fractionating plant at Buck Creek of Solid Ltd., where the various components of crude oil are separated. The plant is very close to automation, with very few men actually employed in the operation of it, considering the great volume of crude that passes through it, from the Russian and Keystone fields. It represents, with the leading terminal at Breton, etc., an investment of approximately five million dollars, which made up a part of the total of some twenty million dollars which was spent by Bess and Sons on the mammoth gathering project to bring the crude in from the fields and to process it in the fractionating plant.

The rig shown in the bottom picture is a Brinkerhoff Drilling Co. rig, taken on a lease 2 miles east of Buck Creek in the early summer of this year.

Funeral Services for Frederick Reidlinger, a resident of the Tomahawk district for forty years, were held in the Tomahawk Lutheran Church on Saturday. He was eighty-five years old.

Mr. Reidlinger is survived by his widow, eleven children, thirty grandchildren and twenty-five great grandchildren. Several members of his family live in and around Drayton Valley.

NOTE: To Mr and Mrs Erwin Dressler, a son, Kyle Robert, on July 10; a brother, for Donald.

Little Elaine Watson, six-year old daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Watson, of Cassia, B.C., arrived by train on Saturday night for a three week visit with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Leon Peck.

Elaine's visit had an inauspicious beginning because she arrived before the letter announcing the exact time of her arrival and she was forced to spend the entire night on the station platform at Estevan.

In the morning Barney Germanuk, of Tower Trucking, who was unloading pipe nearby, noticed the kiddie's plight and sent a message to Drayton Valley. Great Uncle Lester Miller dashed to the rescue and when we saw Elaine on Sunday evening she was catching up on some of her lost sleep.

Vases of red, white and pink poinsettias banked the altar of the Violet Grove Gospel Tabernacle for the recent wedding of Miss Dora Allen and Mr Wilfred Paul. Rev. C. Moody performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs M.B. Allen, of Violet Grove.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of net over white satin. Sequins and pearls embroidered the neckline leaving her lilypoint sleeves just as lovely. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls over net. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Attending the bride was Mrs D. Dilworth, matron of honor, and Miss Helen Paul, bridesmaid. Flower girl was Dora Fay Arndt.

The bride's mother chose a royal blue dress with a scooped neckline and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother chose a navy-blue dress and wore a corsage of white roses.

At the wedding reception, Mr. Brumpton, from New Westminster, B.C. proposed the toast to the bride.

For her wedding trip to the mountains the bride changed to a beige fleeced box suit and white accessories. Mr and Mrs Paul will reside in Violet Grove, where Mr Paul is employed with the oil rigs.

Rodeo

Drayton Valley's 14th annual rodeo got off to a good start on Friday morning, promptly at 12:30, with a parade of over 30 floats, headed by Rodeo Hostess Sherry Scott on her horse Dyna, followed by the official car with Mayor Adrian Nelson, Lion President Don McKenzie, his two daughters, Heather, and Deeded Lion Chuck Dion.

The Oldtimers car held Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson, Mr. Roy Fickett, Mrs. Johnson Sr., and Mr. Halar Ramsted. Items and banners for the Lions Club, sponsors of the rodeo, were Lions Lt. Krauter, John Moody and John Shewchuk. The band which supplied the music for the parade march was the Jasper Place Lions Club youth band, with 17 band members and 15 rickshaws, the band was under the direction of Lion Joe Sibben, of Jasper Place.

First place winner in the floats section was "Pembina Pipe Line" entry, which featured "Pembina Pipe Line, Ltd." written out in flowers on the sides, a large Rodeo steersman made of flowers, in the rear, and the Pembina emblem. Second prize winner was "Bessie's Towing and Taxi Service", with an art of flowers and two children riding hobby horses. Third prize went to the big Boy Scout float, mounted on a Tower Trucking lowboy. In this float the Scouts had set up camp, and showed other phases of Scouting activity, such as First Aid, etc. Judges were Earl Thompson, John McKenzie and Don Harold. In the decorated bicycle class Gale Robertson won first, with Judy Zucht second and Frank Olson third.

All the float entries showed the evidence of much time and effort being spent on them. Other entries among the floats were, Alberta Government Telephones; B.J. Service; Imperial Lumber; McCallough Pool; Olliviers; Drayton Valley Community Library; North Western Utility; Drayton Valley Construction; Flint Rig; Schlumberger; Pembina Drug and Valley Drug; Teen Town, with "Queen" Norma Oldberg and "King" Bob Disney on their thrones; National Supply; Calgary Power, followed by Pacific Pump and Hume and "Babe" on a combined float, with power to operate a small scale pumping unit being supplied by the Calgary Power float; Sakinco Fracturing, complete with the Sakinco Orchestra, the "Sakinco"; MacGillivray Construction Drayton Valley Fire Brigade Unit, with fireman Floyd Allshorn driving; Kellie Hospital Auxiliary; Drayton Valley Hot Oil; Electrical Contracting, Collier Ltd., (with a sign which said, "This vehicle powered by propane"); J.B. Trucking and Brown and Root.

Taking part in the parade also was Russ Greenwood, of Sundre, with his team of Mexican buffalo, which he had trained to draw his ox-cart. The show is sponsored by Calgary Rodeo, the show has been presented in the Calgary Stampede for the last two years and in the Edmonton Exhibition. Also in the parade were a couple of CHED cars, with "Diggers" Dave Heston in the first and "Old Dad" Taylor in the second. A large number of mounted riders also took part in the parade, which was larger than any previous year.

RODEO (continued)

Friday had been designated a Civic Holiday by the Council of the Town of Drayton Valley, and before the rodeo opening time of 2:30 p.m. the crowds started to flock to the rodeo grounds where a midway and other concessions had been set up. Several thousand persons, including large numbers of children, saw the rodeo during the two days it was staged here. The rodeo featured top riders and top rodeo stock. It was announced that two of the Brumby bulls have been selected to a World's Rodeo Championship event to be held in the U.S. later this year. Rodeo Stock was supplied by Harry Veld, the rodeo is approved by the C.F.A., an organization of rodeo performers.

A new and very enjoyable feature of this year's rodeo was the Cowgirl Barrel Race, which had five entries, one of them a local girl, Sherry Scott. Among the riders were three local entrants, Cliff Vandergift, Gen. Rowan and Gerry Polson. The cutting horse competition was enjoyed again this year, with eight entries in this event.

Top money winners for the two days were Bob Brown in the Bareback riding, Alex Lays, in calf roping, Ken Maclean in Saddle Brons Riding, Brian Butterfield in Maclean in Saddle Brons Riding, in the Wild Horse race the Steer Wrestling events, in the Wild Horse race Cliff Vandergift, Cody Lorrin and John Cummings tied for top money. Old Garstod won top money and the Matlock Trophy in Rodeo Bull riding. In the Girls Barrel Race Viola Thomas, of Calgary, was top winner.

The two-day event was highlighted by three evenings of dancing, with a pre-rodeo dance on Thursday night and one on each of the two rodeo nights. Coby Hanes and his orchestra attracted large crowds of dancers to the large new dance-floor in the rink. On Friday night judging of the bands took place, with the Bands orchestra sitting as judges. Twenty-six band contest entries showed up for the occasion. Included were: Art Klotz, Stan Luchak, Don Disney, Kent Williamson, Jack Maclean, Don Compton, Bill Greer, Chuck Dion, Bob MacMillan, Len Crozman, Charlie Twistle, Bill Bromley, John Moody, John Shewchuk, Don Hockley, Ned Martell, Clarence Hillier, Lorne Jilka, Charlie Schenke, R.
